

STARLITE HOMES ON DISPLAY
This is one of 24 Starlite homes now available at Lincoln and Border aves.

Miss McLoskey

Civil Service Stand Praised

Councilman Victor E. Bestead was praised for his stand on Civil Service matters in a resolution passed by the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn.

The resolution praised Bestead's stand "to investigate... each and every instance where in the top applicant, as determined through careful examination by a disinterested group, is by-passed in the awarding of jobs under the city's Civil Service system."

Starlite Executive Homes Open Here This Week-End

Grand opening of the Starlite executive homes this week-end will be highlighted by a demonstration of the new Western Holly built-in ranged rotisserie Sunday July 14, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Miss Margo McLoskey, the Southern California Gas co.'s top home economist, will be on hand for the demonstration. Refreshments will be served.

The home development consists of 24 homes with three distinctive floor plans to choose from, located at the corner of Lincoln ave. and Border ave. in Torrance.

Howard Percy, realtor, stated that the homes will be open from noon until dark. Both FHA corp., which built the homes, will accept trades of present out of state who have a home novel plan for newcomers from homes as down-payments. A and conventional financing are available.

Grad Given Digest Award

has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Assn. for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced today by Mr. Carl R. Ahee, principal.
